

Dear Birthparents,

Hello, our names are Steve and Jean and we want to thank you for reading our letter. We admire and respect you for considering an adoption plan for your child. We know this must be a very difficult decision for you and we hope our letter will make your choice easier.

About Jean...

I was born and raised in a beautiful little town. I am blessed to have 2 wonderful parents, 2 sisters, 2 brothers, and many nieces and nephews. I work full-time as an accounting clerk for a small, family owned retail business. In my spare time, I enjoy playing volleyball, gardening, reading and spending time with family and friends.

About Steve...

I was born and raised in a small community, the youngest of three. I have one brother, one sister, and four nieces and nephews. I have my own construction business. I enjoy working around our home and spoiling my black lab "Ally". I also enjoy reading, watching the Vikings, NASCAR and spending time with relatives and friends.

About Steve and Jean...

We have been married for 9 years. Together, we built our home in a beautiful location not far from town. Our neighborhood is made up mostly of young parents and their children.

A couple of years into our marriage we began trying to build our family. After several unsuccessful Vitro Fertilization cycles, we turned to Catholic Charities, in hopes that we would be blessed with an adoptive child.

Steve and I enjoy traveling. We also enjoy boating in the summer. We spend much of our time on the beach with family and friends and their children. We look forward to taking our children to the beach. Our favorite pastime is spending time at home with our black lab "Ally" and doing projects around the house such as gardening and yard work.

The child we bring into our lives will be loved and cherished by us, along with grandparents, aunts, uncles, and many cousins and friends. We promise to guide your child spiritually and install life-long values in him/her along with a good education. We will also encourage him/her to follow their dreams and be all they can be.

Thank you again for reading our letter and considering us as parents for your child. If you would like to get more information about us, please contact Catholic Charities. Our adoption worker can help make the connection between us.

God Bless,
Steve and Jean
